Reply is taken on record.

This is an application for permission to deposit the arrears of the licence fees along with future licence fees from time to time and for continuation of the interim relief until disposal of the appeal. It is noticed that the order dated 23.9.2005 was self operative. As such, the interim order is already discharged as per the said order. Misc. Civil Application is disposed off with liberty to file a fresh misc. civil application, after full amounts are directly paid to the respondent. The respondent will be at liberty to accept the said amounts, if paid, without prejudice to his rights and contention that no further interim order should be granted.
